

Environment, Environment, Environment

We at ADIS Al Wathba would like to share a moment of pride for the school, as in the very first year of its Environment club (Panchatatva) operations, were nominated for 3 categories. First nomination was for Best field Educators Award, Second Nomination was for the Best Environment Educators and the third one was for Best Community Outreach.

The school has bagged the first place for two out of three categories with an award of AED 13,000.

We would like to sincerely thank all the teachers, parents ,students and the teachers of the Environment club (Panchatatva) for their perseverance, dedication and commitment for making the vision come true to reach the community in every way.

In a special way we would like to sincerely thank the parents for their support at all times.
